HOURS OF OPERATION: 7:30 AM - 5:30PM

Established in 1966 as a Model Cities program, 243 Harvard Street was built by the City of Cambridge and offers the children in our care innovative, state-of-the-art program space. The center includes a new infant/toddler component to meet the high demand for this care in the Cambridge community. Harvard Street serves infants, toddlers and preschoolers from the neighborhoods of Cambridge and Somerville. As part of Nurtury's agreement with the City of Cambridge, our rent is reinvested in the community by the City to provide tuition assistance to Area IV residents using the program.

OUR MISSION & HISTORY

Nurtury gives Greater Boston's youngest children in need, birth to age five, the opportunity to reach their full potential by investing in school readiness, promoting healthy development, and strengthening families.

When our first program opened in 1878, Nurtury became New England's first early education and care agency. Since then, Nurtury has transformed child care to include high-quality educational programming and family support resources. We also embrace a leadership role in the early education field in Boston, convening other family-support organizations, and advocating for the early education workforce at the state level.

Through our center-based programs and family child care system, we have touched generations of children and their families. Every year we care for, and educate 1,200 of Greater Boston's youngest and most vulnerable children at six early learning centers and 130 family child care sites.
